2007-08
FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION
(Convened September 11, 2007)

Whereas, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in extraordinary session: now therefore,

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Section 3(b) Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in extraordinary session at Sacramento, California on the 11th day of September 2007, at a time to be determined, for the following purpose and to legislate upon the following subjects:

To consider and act upon legislation to comprehensively reform California's health care system that relies on shared financing and contributions from individuals, employers, health providers, federal, state and local government, and others.

To consider and act upon legislation that will provide for health care coverage for all Californians and access to health insurance without regard to medical history.

To consider and act upon legislation to make health care more affordable by: (a) reducing the cost to employers and insured individuals associated with uncompensated health care services delivered to the uninsured and low Medi-Cal reimbursement rates, (b) preventing chronic diseases, and (c) promoting more cost effective health care delivery.

To consider and act upon legislation to modify or extend existing programs to provide for a transition to comprehensive health care reform.

To consider and act upon legislation to address fiscal and budget-related matters.
(Added September 19, 2008 by proclamation.)
